

Titanic 3D "First Class Dinner"

Video Link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=t1BQ0PDK5hY>

Description: This is a scene from the film Titanic, one of the most well-known and popular English language films of all time. The film is an early 20th century love story about Jack, a poor young man who falls in love with Rose, a well-off young woman aboard the doomed ship The Titanic.

Formulaic expressions:

- On God's good humour – going wherever God takes you; not choosing a clear path, but letting fate decide
- Have means to (do something) - To have the logistical and financial ability to do something
- From place to place – changing location quickly; not staying for long in one house, town, country, etc.
- A lucky hand – an idiom in reference to playing cards meaning that a good opportunity arose by chance
- A game of luck – a way to express that something happens by chance rather than by skill or strategy
- Rootless existence – a transient way of living; not having a permanent home
- Wind up – a phrasal verb meaning to arrive at a destination after a lot has happened
- Just (point in time) - this indicates that the speaker wants the point in time to appear recent

Quiz:

Multiple Choice

- 1) Which of these groups might live a rootless existence?
  - a) Suburban families
  - b) the police
  - c) Travellers
  - d) university professors
- 2) If you start doing drugs and committing crimes early in life, where are you likely to wind up later on?
  - a) In a highly successful company
  - b) Prison
  - c) In an expensive house
  - d) In a job you hate
- 3) Which of these people would not have the means to travel to another country?
  - a) A person with a broken arm
  - b) A deaf person
  - c) A person with an extensive criminal history
  - d) A teenager
- 4) What is the difference between saying "I went to Italy last year" and "I went to Italy just last year"?
  - a) using 'just' emphasises how recent last year seems
  - b) one is past simple and the other is present perfect
  - c) Using 'just' makes last year seem like the distant past
  - d) one is in the passive voice and one is in the active voice

- 5) Which of these people could be seen as being dealt a lucky hand?
  - a) A university student who studies hard and does well
  - b) A homeless man in search of a job
  - c) A baby born into a rich family
  - d) A politician who never lies
- 6) Which situation describes someone living on God's good humour?
  - a) a businessperson
  - b) a teacher
  - c) a judge
  - d) a traveller
- 7) Which of these is a game of luck?
  - a) roulette
  - b) basketball
  - c) poker
  - d) football
- 8) Which of these groups are known to move from place to place?
  - a) school principals
  - b) military families
  - c) family pets
  - d) librarians

Answer key:

Question	Answer
Which of these groups might live a rootless existence?	Travellers
If you start doing drugs and committing crimes early in life, where are you likely to wind up later on?	Prison
Which of these people would not have the means to travel to another country?	A person with an extensive criminal history
What is the difference between saying “I went to Italy last year” and “I went to Italy just last year”?	using ‘just’ emphasises how recent last year seems
Which of these people could be seen as being dealt a lucky hand?	A baby born into a rich family
Which situation describes someone living on God’s good humour?	a traveller
Which of these is a game of luck?	Roulette
Which of these groups are known to move from place to place?	Military families